

Peck, George H. (?)
[Penn Yan, NY]

August 17, 1930

[The stationery advertises the natural beauty of Lake Keuka
and Penn Yan, NY.]

SCENIC HIGHWAYS TO PENN YAN-LAKE KEUKA

ALL IMPROVED ROADS

Center at Penn Yan
a Friendly Town

Follow the Lake Keuka Trout Signs to "America's Most Beautiful Lake Drive."

From Rochester and Buffalo to Canandaigua, five miles along east shore of Canandaigua Lake, over the hill to Rushville, straight out over the Marcus Whitman Highway, through Potter Glen, past Potter Swamp, a game and bird sanctuary, over the hills to Penn Yan.

From Syracuse, through Auburn, to Geneva, then fifteen miles along Seneca Lake via Dresden, or via Hall, to Penn Yan.

From the south and east along Liberty Highway to Bath; thence along Cold Spring Brook, past the New York State fish hatchery to Hammondsport, cradle of aviation, along Lake Keuka Drive, or from Elmira via Watkins Glen and Dundee.

From the southwest through Hornell, the Glen to the north over Howard Hill to Bath, past Soldiers' Home, down boulevard to monument, left to Hammondsport and Lake Keuka Drive.

FINGER LAKES REGION OF NEW YORK STATE

Lake Keuka, the Gem of them all

The GEO. W. PECK CO.

nine stores

Wholesale and Retail Dealers in

HARDWARE

Agricultural Implements, Stoves

Plumbing, Steam Fitting, Furnace Work

PENN YAN, N. Y.

August 7. 1930.

Mr. Harry Chapman,
333 South 16th St.,
Philadelphia. Pa.

Dear Sir :- Please quote me on the following coins. Mark opposite each the price and condition;

1915 - S -	Small Cent
1909 - S -	do. Indian Head
1908 - S -	do. do.
1864 -	do. Bronze
1858	do. Small Flying Eagle
1858	do. Indian Head - Indian Head
1858	do. do. Laurel do.
1858	do. do. Olive do.
1858	do. do. Head with Shield
1864	do. 2 on Ribbon
1928	Half Dollar - Hawaiian
1912	do. - Columbian

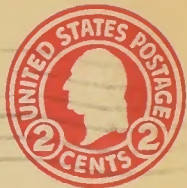

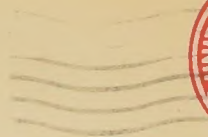

Yours truly,
G. W. Peck

Peck

Am

Entertainment

After 5 days, return to BOX 397,
PENN YAN, N. Y.

Mr. Harry Chapman
333 South 16th St.,
Philadelphia,
Pa.